

Bluff Country Co-op exists so that...

... our community has access to sustainable organic local products and services.

... our community is knowledgeable about food from farm to table and how our food choices affect health, economy, and the environment.

... our community has a vibrant local economy.

... the cooperative model is promoted and supported.

... we may promote and engage in fair and equitable economic relationships with our suppliers, employees, member-owners, and shoppers.

... our member-owners feel a sense of community, connection, and fellowship.
